

Limited Warranty

This limited warranty shows the terms and conditions of compensation for quality assurance by HAGIHARA INDUSTRIES INC. (hereinafter referred to as "Our Company") to the customer who purchased the applicable product directly from Our Company (hereinafter referred to as "Purchaser") as follows.

1. Applicable product and its performance

Applicable Product	Tensile strength	Ultra-violet resistance performance
	lb/3cm (JIS 1096 A)	Accelerated Time (hr)	Strength residual ratio (%)	Equivalent number of years (Year)
Strong Master #40 Black/Black	385	5,600	70% or more	28 years

2. Test conditions, etc.

[Tensile strength]

Tensile strength (lb/3 cm)

This indicates the maximum strength of a 3 cm width cut sample taken during manufacture pulled by a tensile testing machine and broken. The tensile condition is as follows.

(Chuck distance) 50 mm, (Speed) 100 mm/min, (Conform to JIS 1096 A method)

[Ultra-violet resistance performance]

Accelerated Time (hr)

This indicates the time spent in the weathermeter for accelerated testing. Acceleration conditions are based on ASTM G154-3.

Strength residual ratio (%)

This shows the comparison of tensile strength (based on JIS 1096 A method) before the acceleration test and after the corresponding Acceleration Time, and the residual ratio is shown.

Equivalent number of years (years)

This indicates the Accelerated Time amounts for how much time for actual outdoor use. This number of years is based on use at Our Company headquarters (Mizushima, Kurashiki-city, Okayama-ken, Japan).

3. Quality assurance

With regard to the abovementioned "Ultra-violet resistance performance", Our Company guarantees the application of ultraviolet light resistant formulation, at the time of manufacture, that meets these requirements. The "Equivalent number of years" above described in "Ultra-violet resistance performance" is "Period of Limited Warranty" of the product. This warranty is provided in accordance with the attached "General terms and conditions". Please read and understand terms and conditions of this warranty before purchase.

After acknowledgement and understanding of this Limited Warranty, Purchaser agrees this warranty and signs as follows.
